I have worked with Jason for many years , he is wonderful!!!! He takes his time to explain the process and options available to me and for anyone out there looking for a mortgage. He is patient and works hard to get you the proper mortgage for your situation, he is quick to get back to and answer any questions you have at anytime. I emailed him one night at 1am and he returned my message, I wouldn't go anywhere else ever for a mortgage and would recommend him to a person who is looking for it all in a mortgage broker and the services he has provided. I had such an incredible experience working with Jason Garbus at Ascend Financial Network. My fiance and I were both first time homebuyers with no experience with the mortgage or home buying process. He took the time to walk us through everything every step of the way. He made the process of buying a home feel like a breeze, especially considering the current market. Thank you Jason and Ascend! We are so happy in our new home. - Liz G. (Google)

We were first time homebuyers and worked with Jason Garbus as our mortgage broker. He was the perfect balance of being relaxed and accessible, while also maintaining a completely professional demeanor and atmosphere the entire time from start to finish. He answered all of our questions (even the dumb ones) and explained things so well that our questions were often answered before we had to ask them. We never felt belittled because we were inexperienced. He put us at ease, took a lot of the stress out of the process and we knew we'd be taken care of from the first phone call to the last signature and beyond. He was serious when he needed to be, had a good sense of humor when it was called for, and he was always available and helpful. Ascend Financial itself is a professional, relaxed office with a modern atmosphere, that feels sleek, yet homey and comfortable. I highly recommend Jason and Ascend. - Matthew G. (Google)

I had an excellent experience working with Jason Garbus on my mortgage refinance. He is very knowledgeable and super responsive. Will definitely do future business with him. - Rudolph D. (Google)

Jason refinanced my home. He was on call nearly 24/7. I work third shift, he accommodated me and made it easier than I could have imagined. I worked with other companies in the past trying to refinance my home with zero luck. Jason took great care with me and got a better interest rate than any of my co workers. Now why am I mentioning this? Nine other co workers were in the market to refinance, Jason acquired a better interest rate than all other companies. During these trying times ( pandemic) he provided door to door service. He also got me a better interest rate then that of the original quote. No came close to Jason.

So Jason in short is simply the best around. Professional, courteous, super responsive, he keeps you in the loop...look no further because you do not need to. One stop shopping...it is all right here! - Patrick S. (Google)

Jason was the definition of a professional throughout the entire mortgage process. As first-time home buyers, it was very comforting working with Jason. He was highly knowledgeable, diligent, thorough, and organized. - Brandon P. (Google)

Jason and the entire ascend financial team are fantastic. He executed my mortgage back in 2015 and recently my refi at an incredibly low interest rate. I couldn't be happier with how everything turned out. The process was easy, timely, and Jason does a great job walking you through all the details so you're educated. I highly recommend ascend financial to anyone that's looking for a mortgage, I wouldn't go to anyone else. - David S. (Google)

Jason went above and beyond to make sure I understood the mortgage process. He is a true professional who is extremely knowledgeable and accommodating on every level. He communicated with all parties involved (my real estate agent- insurance agent and attorney) every detail to ensure I would close on time. Jason was readily available -even on nights and weekends-to help me navigate through paperwork and answer my questions. He is very personable and made me feel like we were long-standing friends and not just a client. This type of rapport helped ease any anxiety I was feeling at the beginning of this process. I, without any hesitation, would HIGHLY recommend Jason to assist any homebuyer and have since referred him to a family member and a friend who are also praising Jason's professionalism and enthusiasm. All in all, Jason is simply the best! - Marla V. (Google)

I cannot begin to say enough good things about Jason Garbus. He was initially recommended to us by our realtor. From the start, he gave us personalized service and took the time to answer all of our questions. He never made us feel rushed or that he did not have time for us. He kept our best interests in mind at all times, while being open and honest with us. We came into some trouble just before our closing due to a delay in the buyers of our house. Look no further if you're going to buy or refinance. Jason at Ascend financial is the absolute best!!! I did a refi and my situation was a difficult one seeing I had several unknown issues that came up from meeting deadlines to unforeseen incorrect things that presented itself throughout the entire process. He was on top of 'every' aspect yet maintained a professional and calm disposition. I highly recommend his Atty Shannon Bansley also- they work together seamlessly and get it done! Very impressed. Throughout the entire process I was reassured by his professionalism, constant contact and attention. And there is NO doubt in my mind that if anyone else handled my Refi it would not have worked out in my favor. Thank you Jason for all your hard work and effort!!! My only regret is that I didn't post this review sooner. - Lori A. (Facebook)
