

It was a pleasure working with John Lovelace from Ascend Financial Network. As a first time homebuyer, I was anxious purchasing a home however John was clear and informative throughout the entire process, making it much more comfortable than I could've ever anticipated. He was responsive and easy to reach on any day settling all my questions and concerns promptly. It was evident he focused on finding me the best solution and was an absolute pleasure to work with in the process! Cheers, John! - Brennan M.
(Google)